

Operations Officer Rotation for 2005 – Operations Committee

The Operations Officer for the Operations Committee will consist of the Chair, followed by the Vice-Chair, and then continuing in the order of respective agency representatives as listed in the Charter. It will be the Operations Officer assigned responsibility to notify RMACC if/when they are no longer available to fill the assignment. RMACC will then contact the next member on the list that follows. The Chair of the Committee will update the Operations Officer Rotation annually and submit to the Committee and RMACC. It is understood that if none of the Committee members are available that contact will defer to RMACC.
